Munich- Munich the cosmopolitan city with a big heart, is a city full of art, culture and joie de vivre. It is the capital of Bavaria and the capital of beer and European art. Munich – that is the Royal Residence and the Hofbräuhaus, Nymphenburg and Schwabing, a city of princes elector and citizens, a city of immigrant workers and students, a city of conference members and tourists.

Innsbruck- Innsbruck is located at the Inn river and this is also what the emblem of the city illustrates. “Bruck” comes from the German word “Brücke”, which means bridge, that is to say the “bridge over the Inn river”. Its beneficial location and the possibility to cross the Alps has already been appreciated by Romans, who built the important commercial road Verona-Brennero-Augsburg in the 4th century. Nowadays Innsbruck is the fifth largest city of Austria and features about 130,000 inhabitants. The city is surrounded by the Karwendel mountain chain in the north and the Patscherkofel mountain in the south.

Salzburg- Salzburg the birthplace of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, is dominated by churches, castles and palaces. Its picturesque old town is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Hohensalzburg Fortress, the landmark of Salzburg, is Central Europe’s largest intact fortress and offers fantastic views of the city. Visit the Princely Residence, a magnificent early baroque edifice with splendid halls and a gallery featuring European paintings dating between the 16th and 19th century. The nearby vast Salzburg Dom is without doubt the main attraction of the old town. Inside there is the Romanesque font where Mozart was baptized.

Vienna, also described as Europe's cultural capital, is a metropolis with unique charm, vibrancy and flair. It boasts outstanding infrastructure, is Clean and safe, and has all the inspiration that you COU/d Wish for in order to discover this wonderful part of Europe. Vienna is a dream city for anyone with a romantic streak or an interest in history.

Bratislava- The Capital of the Slovak Republic BRATISLAVA, also referred to as the Beauty on the Danube can not only boast interesting history but it also is the centre of the most dynamically developing region of central Europe at present Bratislava is a small historical city, but largest in Slovakia and a youngest european metropolis. Enjoy the shopping, dining and natural wonders Bratislava has to offer as a reemerging sparkler of history, culture, business and recreation.

Budapest- A city in a stunning natural setting with a rich architectural and historical heritage, offering an unmatched combination of culture, fine cuisine and thermal baths. A city on either side of the majestic Danube: Buda, with its romantic streets and alleyways, and Pest, an effervescent cultural centre. Divided in two by the Danube, the city is made up of Buda on one Side: With Ottoman-era thermal baths at the foot Of the spectacular Gellért Hill, the royal palace and Matthias Church, it radiates calm and peace. One the other side lies Pest, vibrant and lively, with its slew of museums rich in cultural and historical treasures, extraordinary Secessionist architecture, its majestic Parliament building considered as one of the most magnificent in the world, Saint Stephen's Basilica surrounded by pedestrian streets, and its entirely renovated Jewish Quarter and Palace District.

Prague- The Czech Republic's largest city, and also its capital, Prague strategically hugs the Vltava River and has always played an important part in central Europe's politics, culture and economy. The beautiful and picturesque Charles Bridge straddles the river banks, famous for its classic monuments as it is for the breathtaking views it offers of the city. Prague's rich Jewish history can be experienced in the city's Jewish Museum, the Jewish Quarter with the Old-New Synagogue and the haunting Jewish cemetery dating back 1000 years. Prague offers visitors interesting ways to discover its culinary delights, from beer and brewery tours to lunch in world famous beer gardens.
